Summary / Profile:

I am a team lead & web developer who wants to improve my skill always. I have several experiences with software development. For technical skills such as frontend, backend, automated testing, and AWS services (EC2, S3, Lambda, Cloudfront, etc.). For other skills, I used to use the Agile process in my projects which have planning, backlogs refinement, daily stand up, and retrospective. And I can use tools that are related to my tasks. In addition, I supported the team like a review code, coaching team members and finding the solutions when having some problems for delivering tasks on time for team success.
